

VEGA ECONOMICS

WHO WE ARE

Vega is a premier economic consulting firm specializing in developing expert testimony and data analysis for litigation and consulting engagements. Our team and network of experts guide and support our clients as they navigate complex economic issues.

EXPERT NETWORK

We provide support to over 150 academic and industry professionals. The economic issues in litigation today can be highly technical and complex. We have access to top experts who not only offer expertise but also understand the importance of presenting their testimony in clear and understandable terms.

SUPPORT TEAM

We don't just connect you with experts. We will be available to guide you through the complex economic issues unique to each case and offer suggestions and ideas to help you navigate any stage of litigation.

VEGA ECONOMICS

2040 Bancroft Way Suite 200
Berkeley, CA 94704
(510) 280-5520

CONTACT DETAILS

Daphne Chen, PhD
dchen@vegaeconomics.com

Alison Palo, Esq.
apalo@vegaeconomics.com

NAVIGATING ECONOMIC ISSUES WITH INSIGHT FROM LEADING ANTITRUST EXPERTS

2021

ANTITRUST & COMPETITION

The Vega team supports the industries leading experts to provide analyses of the complete range of economic issues arising in antitrust litigation including market definition and market power, market structure, pricing, profitability, and damages.

INTERNET PLATFORMS

Daniel Spulber

Elinor Hobbs Distinguished Professor of International Business and Professor of Strategy at the Kellogg School of Management, Northwestern University.

Professor Spulber's expertise is in antitrust, platforms and two-sided markets, intellectual property, technology and innovation, and industrial organization. He is a seasoned testifying expert who has provided expert testimony before numerous federal agencies.

HEALTH CARE

Lou Rossiter

Research Professor in the Thomas Jefferson Program in Public Policy at William & Mary.

Professor Rossiter is an expert in health economics. He has served as expert related to competition in the financing and delivery of health services, reimbursement economics, managed care organizations, prescribed medicines, survey research, health information analytics. Vega recently supported Professor Rossiter's testimony in seven generic pharmaceutical price fixing matters.

FINANCE

Anthony Saunders

John M. Schiff Professor of Finance in the Stern School of Business at NYU.

Professor Saunders specializes in financial institutions and international banking. His research has been published in all of the major finance and banking journals and in several books. Professor Saunders has been retained investigate allegations of bond-rigging prior to the filing of the complaint.

AGRICULTURE

Colin Carter

Distinguished Professor of Agricultural and Resource Economics at University of California, Davis.

Dr. Carter has extensive litigation experience as an economics expert witness, dealing with commodities. He has written a number of economic reports for litigation purposes and has been deposed numerous times. Dr. Carter has experience estimating economic damages and measuring the market impacts of international commodity trade in antitrust matters.

DAMAGES

Thomas Lys

Eric L. Kohler Professor Emeritus at the Kellogg School of Management, Northwestern University.

Professor Lys has been retained as a testifying expert in over sixty matters, on issues in accounting, finance, economics, corporate governance, real estate, and negotiation. Recently, he was retained on an antitrust case to calculate damages.

For detailed info about these or additional experts, contact Alison Palo, Director of Business Development at:

✉ apalo@vegaeconomics.com

☎ 510-280-5520