HELP SUPPORT VEGA'S FAVORITE LOCAL

Berkeley Restaurants

We have been missing our favorite Berkeley go-to lunch spots and celebratory happy hours while we have been working from home. We can almost smell a hot slice of Cheeseboard from our home offices! Check out some of our local favorites The Cheeseboard Collective, GREGOIRE, Cesar, and Guerilla Café!

The Cheeseboard Collective:

This worker-owned restaurant makes a different vegetarian pizza each night that is always topped with fresh ingredients and served on their signature thin sourdough crust. Our favorite order is a whole steamy hot pie served with a rose lemonade.

GREGOIRE:

GREGOIRE elevates traditional takeout food and offers customers memorable artisan meals from a small shop in the Gourmet Ghetto. They prepare all meals from scratch made with the best organic ingredients. Make sure to order a side of the famous Crispy Potato Puffs!

Cesar:

The Vega team enjoyed post deadline happy hours at this local favorite tapas restaurant. Choose from their variety of small plates like patatas bravas or their famous seafood paella. They are currently offering cocktails to go!

Guerilla Café:

This hip café offers fresh coffee and tasty breakfast and lunch options. Guerilla features lots of local art and a cozy vibe. Try a pairing a fresh waffle with a hot latte for the perfect breakfast!

No matter where you live, please reach out to support your local small businesses during this difficult time. We hope to share a cup of local coffee soon!
